FRIENDS OF RAVENNA

Papa Francesco a Palermo

An illustrated talk by

Jennifer McNeill

Wednesday 9 September at 7.30 pm on Zoom

Jennifer has recently moved to Chichester and is currently studying Italian, having fallen in love with the language, the country, the culture, the people, the food....

Her last visit was to Sicily in 2018 where she had a taste of the shadow of the mafia, brought home to her by Papa Francesco's visit to Palermo and his special message to the crowds -

“Non si può credere in Dio ed essere Mafiosi” *

Jennifer will give her perspective of the excitement, anticipation and the nervousness of the Sicilian people who gathered for this visit which was to honour the “martyr “ priest Giuseppe ‘Pino’ Puglisi who was murdered by the mafia after his attempts to lead young people away from this organisation.

*(You cannot believe in God and be Mafiosi).
